Copyright Licensing Agreement

between HYLE and _____

By submitting to HYLE the manuscript entitled:

_____

I declare (on behalf of me and my co-authors) that the said manuscript has never been published and that I am (we are) the sole owner(s) of the manuscript thereof and of all rights, title, and interest therein.

I agree (on behalf of me and my co-authors) to the following:

- 1. Assignment.* I (we) hereby assign to the publisher of HYLE the right to electronically publish and distribute the said manuscript on the Internet and to create a derivative print work from said manuscript. The said manuscript may be published by HYLE under a licence that allows users the free use for personal, scientific, or educational purposes, and that ensures that the integrity of the work is respected and that due credit is given to the authors in any use of the work. Furthermore, the publisher of HYLE shall be allowed to let the said manuscript in parts or as a whole be stored in professional databases, such as bibliographical databases and professional archives.
- 2. Certain Rights Reserved to Author.* I (we) shall remain the owner of the copyright in said manuscript. I (we) may publish the manuscript in any other journal or medium, but such publication must include the notice that the manuscript was first published by HYLE including all reference details of the first publication.
- 3. Hold Harmless Clauses.* I (we) agree to hold the publisher of HYLE harmless for any unauthorized use of the said manuscript by third parties. Should the said manuscript contain parts that infringe the copyright of third parties, I (we) shall take full legal responsibility for the infringement and shall pay or compensate the publisher of HYLE for any fees that might legitimately be levied by third parties for the infringement.
